EL PASO CONGRESS

TWELFTH SESSION OF THE IRRIGATIONISTS.

Expected to Be the Largest and Most Profitable Convention Ever Held—The Work Will Be Divided Into Sections: Engineering, Forestry, Increasing Production, Drainage, Climatology—Canada and Mexico Will Be Represented—Advance Guard Is Now Arriving.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 11.—The 12th National Irrigation Congress, which will open here next Tuesday, promises to be the largest and most influential body of the kind which has yet assembled in this country. The advance guard of delegates and visitors is already beginning to put in an appearance, and today the local arrangements committee and their colleagues of the national committee have been busy completing the final details of the convention program.

The work of the congress will be divided into various sections for the discussion of matters relating directly or indirectly to the irrigation movement. There will be papers and discussions dealing with the increasing of production by irrigation in the Atlantic states as well as in the Pacific section; the forestry problems in New England, and along the Appalachian chain, as well as along the Rockies and Sierras, engineering applied to protect from devastation by flood, and drainage, climatology and rural settlement.

Advices received by the local committee indicate that the congress will be attended by large delegations from Utah, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, California, Texas, Oklahoma, Arizona, Idaho, Minnesota, Montana and from many of the Eastern and Central states. Canada and Mexico also will be officially represented.

To Welcome Prince Fushimi.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—Assistant Secretary of State Pierce is busy just now preparing for the reception and entertainment of Prince Fushimi, a nephew of the Emperor of Japan, who is expected in Washington next week. President Roosevelt will, of course, give a dinner for the prince at the White House. As a member of the ruling house of Japan he will be entitled to a military escort while in Washington, as was Prince Henry of Prussia, who visited the United States two years ago. Another feature of the entertainment in honor of the prince will be a brilliant reception at the Japanese legation.

Birthday of Famous Scientist.
Medford, Mass., Nov. 11.—Prof. Amos E. Dolbear, the famous scientific genius of Tufts college, celebrated his 67th birthday today. Prof. Dolbear has had a busy and interesting career. Prior to coming to Tufts he taught at Kentucky University and at numerous other institutions of learning in different parts of the country. He has achieved many and memorable distinctions in the field of electricity, his inventions including the static telephone, magneto electric telephone, electrical gyroscope, epidoscope and kindred machines.

Y. M. C. A. Conference.
Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 11.—The New York State Boys' Conference, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, began its annual session in Rochester today and will continue through Sunday. The chief purpose of the conference work is to increase interest in Bible study and personal spiritual development. Delegates and speakers are in attendance from New York city, Buffalo, Syracuse, Utica and other cities of the state where the Y. M. C. A. has branches.

While there is life there is hope.
I was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus G. Shantz, Rahway, N. J.

Cream Balm reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the last application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H.

The Balm does not irritate nor cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts. or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

Golden Rule Store.
By mistake of the factory the Golden Rule Store has about three times as many golf gloves as were ordered. Rather than return them, it has been decided by a big reduction in price to close them out. You ought to see the 50c values they are offering for 25c, and the 75c values which go for 48c.

Notice to Debtors.
All persons knowing themselves indebted to the firm of Sones & Walker, Helix, Oregon, will please call and settle at once. As we have sold out our entire interest. All bills payable to P. H. Sones, Helix, Oregon.

It Is Wonderful

COMPETITORS ALL OUT-DISTANCED.

The awarding of the only prize for Blankets, Indian Robes, Indian Shawls and Indian Couch Covers at St. Louis to the Pendleton Woolen Mills adds but very little to the fame of this celebrated line of goods, but the circumstances surrounding the goods sent to the Fair show that this line really merits all the honor as this was not a prepared exhibit.

It is usual for manufacturers to prepare something especially fine for exhibition purposes, but these goods were packed on a "hurry-up" order direct from the shelves of the stock room and are the exact qualities that are being shipped all over the country to customers.

Christmas trade has commenced to come in already, showing that there is going to be greater interest all over the country in these Robes, Etc., for holiday presents.

Pendleton people should bear this in mind. Nothing pleases friends in the East more than one of these robes. They not only advertise the City of Pendleton, but are the most appropriate souvenir of the Great West now obtainable.

THE SMOKING JACKETS bid fair to soon outlive the robes in popularity, as orders are coming in from nearly all the points where samples have been shown.

They are without doubt the swellest thing and the latest novelty in Smoking Jackets. By the way,

HAVE YOU SEEN THE SMOKING JACKETS?
